

Deutsche Gesellschaft
für Hauswirtschaft e.V.

IFHE
INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION
FOR HOME ECONOMICS

“Home Economics 3.0: A Critical Update” Competition: Seeking Examples of Good Practice

The German section of the International Federation for Home Economics (IFHE)¹, is launching a competition to mark World Home Economics Day² 2023. Eligibility: Individuals, institutions, organizations, or associations, as well as educational establishments for all age and professional groups, that run or implement projects related to home economics skills that contribute to digitalization, diversity, resilience, or sufficiency behavior.

Key facts at a glance

Application:

In German or English using the application form plus additional materials (e.g. links, photographs, videos)

Closing date:

31 January, 2024

Prizes:

1st and 2nd places: payment of conference fees for one person to attend the dgh Annual Conference in Fula in September 2024 on the theme of “Lifelong learning”.
Digital visibility for the best practical examples through social media channels with nationwide and international reach, as well as book vouchers.

For further information and an application form, please visit here.

¹ The International Federation for Home Economics (IFHE) is a globally recognised non-governmental organisation with consultative status with the United Nations. Founded in Switzerland in 1908, it is the only global organisation which addresses home economics, household science and consumer science issues. The German Section of the IFHE is the International Advisory Board of the “Deutsche Gesellschaft für Hauswirtschaft” (German Society for Home Economics).

² World Home Economics Day is an initiative of the International Federation for Home Economics (IFHE) and has been celebrated since 1982.